

Eric Warshawsky

3704 North Charles Street, Unit 1105
Baltimore, Maryland 21218

Phone: 410-207-5502
E-Mail: eric.h.warshawsky@gmail.com

Education

University of Vermont.
Bachelor of Arts, 2017
Double Major: Japanese (3.68 GPA) and Asian Studies (3.73 GPA)
Studied abroad at Aoyama Gakuin Daigaku, Tokyo, Japan (6-month program)

Professional Experience

Johns Hopkins University Coding Boot Camp

Baltimore, Maryland
August 2020 – February 2021
Worked on web projects both alone and with teams using current technology in Web Development.
Technologies studied include MongoDB, Express, React, and Node.

Peace Corps - Youth In Development Volunteer

Surat Thani, Thailand
January 2019 – March 2020
As a member of the Peace Corps Youth in Development program, worked with local government, school, and health officials to develop and promote programs for Thai youth with a focus on local sustainability. Activities included teaching English and life skills at schools and planning and facilitating community events focused on topics such as health, physical fitness, and drug use prevention.

Gengo - Japanese Freelance Translation

Baltimore, Maryland
February 2018 – August 2018
Provided translation services for businesses on a contract basis. Work primarily involved translating Japanese advertisements and other copy into English for use by Japanese businesses.

iTTTi Japan - English Teacher

Nasushiobara, Tochigi, Japan
August 2017-February 2018
Taught English to Japanese children in after-school program. Trained new teachers on site.

Language Skills

Japanese Language: Proficient in day-to-day conversation and translation. Has N3 certification.

Thai Language: Proficient in day-to-day conversation as a product of Peace Corps language training and living in Thailand.

References

Will be provided upon request.